

BENNY LEONARD HERE TO DEFEND CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE

TAKES LONG TRIP ON CINDER PATH

Although Tired From Long Trip on Late Train He Starts His Training.

M'PARTLAND REFEREES

Both Contenders Will Work-out This Afternoon—Seat Sale Rapid.

Benny Leonard, although somewhat worn by his long trip on a train traveling seven hours behind schedule, arrived in Tulsa at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon to defend his lightweight championship title against Jimmy Duffy, Lockport, Wis., who is the challenger.

Leonard, looking as good as he says he feels, "Never felt better and never was in better shape in my life," he told a group of friends. He didn't show any anxiety over being billed to box Duffy who is rated as one of the fastest lightweights in the country.

It is conceded by all followers of the game that Leonard in his 15-round bout at convention hall Monday night will participate in the most important engagement he has been in since he won the championship. As a matter of fact this will be the first decision for him since he took the title.

Duffy is fast worker. Although Duffy has no long string of knockouts to his credit, he is a fast worker and can put over a good heavy wallop when the opening shows. His longer reach and fast work probably will give Leonard much trouble.

There was another big crowd at the Brady hotel yesterday afternoon to watch Duffy go through his training. He worked fast and with a spirit that showed gameness. Although Leonard has many followers in Tulsa those who have favored the champion are somewhat dubious after having seen Duffy in action.

Duffy will work out at the Brady hotel at 1:30 o'clock today and after his hour of training the fans will have an opportunity to see the champion in training.

John J. Reiser, promoter, announced last night that McPartland, former featherweight champion, would be the third man in the ring. McPartland arrived yesterday afternoon from New York. He is recognized as one of the best boxing authorities in the game and his selection as referee met with the approval of both Duffy and Leonard.

In Leonard's party were Billy Gibson, manager, and George Ingle, trainer. They have a suite of rooms at Hotel Tulsa.

The seat sale is becoming heavier every day, according to Reiser, who anticipates that the entire house will be sold before Monday night.

On account of the shortage of newspaper space it is compulsory for papers throughout the country to reduce space to a minimum. Promoter Reiser announced last night that even though with scant publicity orders are coming in for tickets from all sections of the country.

OHIO STATE BATTLES WITH WISCONSIN TODAY

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—Football will reach a climax in the west tomorrow, with interest centering in the struggle between the undefeated Ohio State eleven and Wisconsin at Madison, the Michigan-Illinois contest at Urbana and the clash between Northwestern and Indiana will take the field at Evanston in the other western conference game, but this contest will have little bearing on the championship, as both teams are out of the running.

TULSA WINS RIGHT TO PLAY FOR TITLE

By Defeating Nowata Friday Local High School Will Play With Capital City Eleven for Honors

By both teams winning their games yesterday Tulsa and Oklahoma City qualified to play the state championship contest. Tulsa defeated Nowata in a one-sided affair. The only question at anytime was not how the game would be, finally it was 54 to 0.

Tulsa's fast back and were well represented by Captain Hendrix. Reese and Carter probably played the strongest game for the Tulsa side while Chase played good out for Nowata.

AGGIES AND PHILLIPS BATTLE TO 7-7 SCORE

Special to The World.
STILLWATER, Okla., Nov. 14.—The Oklahoma Aggies and Phillips university eleven fought bitterly here today in a driving rain, the result being a 7 to 7 tie. Four thousand spectators were on hand throughout the game. The Aggie attack surprised the Phillips aggregation. While the fighting spirit shown by the A. & M. college gridiron was all the more and back supporters could expect two wonderful chances to count the winning touchdowns were halted by fumbles which were disconcerting.

KENDALL GAME TODAY IS LAST OF SEASON AT HOME

Tulsa football fans will be afforded the opportunity to witness the last game of the season to be played in this city Saturday afternoon when the teams of Kendall and Huntington colleges clash on the McPartland field.

The Kendall team will go to Stillwater for a match with the A. & M. college on November 21. If 125 fans can be secured to make the trip a special train can be secured.

CRIPPLED SOONERS EXPECT WIN TODAY

Hopes of victory Over Arkansas Not Lessened by Absence of Five Regulars.

Special to The World.
NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 14.—A fifth University of Oklahoma football regular may be out of Saturday's game against the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville. Dorsey Boyle, left half, has a swollen ear as a result of a scratch becoming infected and he may not enter the game.

PRINCETON WILL TIE UP WITH YALE GRIDS TODAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The series of the season's eastern football classics will be played at New Haven tomorrow when Yale and Princeton meet, but football enthusiasm will not be confined to this contest alone. Several other gridiron struggles will show interest with the Tiger-Elk battle and will have equal bearing upon the final ranking of teams of the section. Scarcely less important than the Yale-Princeton game is the battle between the undefeated Colgate team and the powerful Syracuse combination in the home stadium of the latter team.

Two other impressive football machines line up in the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania combat and Pittsburgh seems to be the choice.

West Virginia, Rutgers and Dartmouth-Brown games are certain to develop interest, but in each case the first named team, on its season form, is the logical favorite. Harvard, Army and Navy, in playing Tufts, Villa Nova, and Colby, respectively, expect hard games, without, however, fearing the outcome. Among the New England college, the Amherst-Williams, and Wesleyan-Columbia games are the outstanding features.

Oklahoma City Wins Again

NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 14.—Oklahoma City high school clinched the championship of the central Oklahoma high school conference by defeating Norman high 21 to 7 here today. Intersected passes gave Oklahoma City the winning touchdowns. Oklahoma City will seek a post-season game with the eastern Oklahoma champions for the state title.
